APPLICATION FOR COMMERCIAL MEMBERSHIP AND SERVICE

The undersigned hereby applies for membership in Aiken Electric Cooperative, Inc., (Herein called "Cooperative") the fee to be based upon the rate classification of service rendered. All Cooperative services shall be furnished at established rates. I will comply with the by-laws, rules and regulations of the Cooperative. My indebtedness will be paid when due. Should my account become delinquent, electric service may be promptly discontinued. Thereafter my membership fee, deposit and any capital credits to which I am entitled may be credited against my indebtedness. I grant to the Cooperative the right to construct, operate, maintain, replace and relocate upon my land identified above, an electric distribution and/or service line, and also to keep same clear of shrubbery and dangerous trees and the use of herbicides to control such.

"The Board of Trustees is hereby authorized (during the term of my membership) to charge against the property interest of my capital credits an amount to be applied to the cost of a year's subscription to Living in South Carolina Magazine."

Pay By Net Options

Please visit www.aikenco-op.org to access your account, pay your bill, and obtain information on Aiken Electric Cooperative programs and policies.

Operation Round Up®

Operation Round Up® is a volunteer participation program for AEC members to help provide food, shelter, clothing, healthcare and other services to those in our communities who need it the most. A participating member's electric bill is rounded up to the next highest dollar amount, resulting in an average contribution of about $6 each year.

E-Bill or Paper Bill

As an Aiken Electric Cooperative member you have the option of receiving an electronic billing statement or a paper billing statement.

Security Deposit Options

- Cash Deposit – The standard deposit for commercial service accounts is the two highest consecutive bills at that premise. On accounts without billing history, the deposit will be based on two months estimated usage.
- Surety Bond – This surety bond should be issued in the amount that is equal to the cash deposit amount.
- Irrevocable Letter of Credit – This Letter of Credit should be issued from your bank ensuring payment to Aiken Electric Cooperative.
- Certificate of Deposit – This Certificate of Deposit should be issued in a joint account named to the consumer and Aiken Electric Cooperative, and should equal to the cash deposit amount.
